ALONE IN BETHEL ON THANKSGIVING?

Are you going to be alone in Bethel on Thanksgiving? No family or friends to go to, nor coming to be with you? If so, you are invited to a Thanksgiving Dinner "That Can't Be Beat" at the Congregational Church (West Parish) on Church St., next to Gould Academy on Thanksgiving Day at 12 noon. We'll be preparing the dinner on Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, at 8 p. m. and on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock following. If you want to share and enjoy the "commotion of getting ready" that always seems to be part of a holiday celebration dinner, just come to the church on Wednesday evening and/or Thursday morning. We'd be privileged to have your presence and help.

HOMEcoming THEME FOR BETHEL WINTER CARNIVAL

A mid-February '79 Bethel area winter carnival will climax on the week end of Feb. 23 and 24 according to a planning group which met last Friday for a series of planning meetings. The next meeting is scheduled for Friday, Nov. 17 at Don Bennett's home, Mayville.

The concept for this year's carnival is twofold: first there will be competitive winter sports and activities such as, hopefully, an ice fishing derby taking place during the two weeks prior to a week end finale; secondly, for the finale a carnival queen or king and queen will be crowned to preside at various awards ceremonies recognizing winners in sporting events and snow sculpture. Other events on the finale week end may include a parade, a carnival ball, a comic event such as either a baseball game or firemen's muster on snowshoes, and a torchlight parade. Final alternate dates are March 2 and 3.

The theme for all events and judging is Homecoming—symbols of a traditional winter vacation.

The Chamber of Commerce will act as carnival coordinator and will handle publicity as well as be responsible for the coronation of a royal couple or queen. Others attending the first meeting were representatives of the Bethel Lions Club, Sunday River Skiway and Sunday River Ski Touring Center. For later meetings those attending were the churches, Mt. Abram Ski Slopes and ice fishermen.

COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The Board of Selectmen met Monday evening, Nov. 13, and acted on a varied agenda. A beacon license for the American Legion was approved for the period December 78 through May '79 and the fifth invoice from Dubois & King, Inc., in the amount of $4,973.41 for the sewer planning project was approved.

Betty Woodbury and Joyce Crockett representing the West Bethel Children's Center met with the Board to discuss the construction of a 6'x8' storage shed at the Center. It was indicated that the parents of students would build the storage shed with donated materials. The Board approved the construction and directed the manager to work with the Center staff in determining the location of the building on the property.

Lynn Bristol met with the Board to discuss her idea concerning the possible use of part of the Wherehouse building (the former liquor store) for recreational activities. The Board suggested that she work with the Recreation Board in putting together more information on the proposed activities.

A public hearing was held on the proposed traffic ordinance change to establish a "No Parking—Tow Away Zone" on (1) both sides of Clark Street for a distance of 200' from the center line of Main Street; and (2) the easterly side of Main Street in a southerly direction a distance 160' from the center line of Clark Street. The owner and manager of the Suburban Inn and four Clark Street residents were present. All spoke in favor of the proposed change, however, they raised questions if it should be done for the whole street. The residents were asked to discuss the situation with all residents and submit a recommendation to the manager. This recommendation will be reviewed by the manager, police chief and highway foreman before being submitted to the Selectmen at their next meeting. Following the hearing, the Board approved the "No Parking—Tow Away Zone" as proposed.

The Board reviewed the final documents for the lease of land at the airport with the Bethel Aviators Group. After review and discussion with Jim Hudson, representing the group, the Board approved the lease with the minor change. The lease will be for a period of one year.

State Trooper Richard Donald met with the Board to request that the weapons permit issued to Scott Gunther be revoked due to use other than what the permit was intended for. The Board directed the manager to review the procedure for revocation of a permit with the Town's Attorney and report back at the next meeting.

In other actions, the Board reviewed the October financial statement with the manager indicating that a Special Town Meeting would have to be held in mid December to deal with small overdrafts in a few accounts. Overdrafts have been caused by expenses over which the Town has no control.

REGIONALLY UNIQUE EXHIBIT SERIES STARTED

As part of its wood industry promotion, the Greater Bethel Chamber of Commerce has initiated a program of local manufacturers taht is unique within this area of Maine and New Hampshire. The first exhibitor is S. Timberlake Co. which makes furniture in the Early American style, specializing in Shaker reproductions. Beside illustrations of the company's product line, the display shows steps in the production process.

The exhibit area and concept is patterned after similar types of displays used by the Maine Publicity Bureau and, in foreign countries, by the U. S. Information Agency. Location of the display in the Bethel Town Office is designed to attract more than retail shopper interest, aiming at potential wholesalers and representatives of prospective new businesses interested in Bethel.

Greenwood City

— Mrs. Collis Morgan, Corres. —

November is riding her broomstick down dusky skies but as yet her breath which is usually harsh has been gentle. What a lovely two weeks we have had!

Until the hunting season is over, I shall not walk the woodland trails. So when I go out I follow the main highway. Even here there are things to notice. The coarse blades of grass bend low over pools and mossy hummocks.

I have discovered two robins mud-caked nests near home, which I tried to find during the summer. Everywhere along the way, there are old friends among the trees, special plants which I visit at different seasons.

There is one section of the road that I think of in winter as the refrigerator. Here the wind blows cold. Big clouds white and billowy can quickly turn dark and threatening and speed before its chill-blast trailing their skirts over the far off mountain tops. I have seen a cloud move up and hide the sun, then the very same hills which had seemed so kind, were suddenly lonely and formidable, and the wind suddenly chill. Here it's coolest in summer, too.

On the rocks and ridges above the road there were masses of Christmas ferns. They retain their fronds all during winter, and are glossy green.

Beyond, a cloud, white and fluffy as eiderdown, sailed across the sky, trailing a gray shadow across the ridges.

A chipmunk, not yet gone to his winter home, scurried over the leaf carpet of the woodland floor. It's a beautiful country even in its bareness. The valley displayed its little rounded hills, green and friendly. The tall stately trees, were graceful in their tracery of bare boughs. Jagged rocks stuck out through the thin skin of the earth.

November has a peculiar quality of light especially late afternoon. Somehow the hills across the valley seem close and distinct. Bare trees stand against sky like detailed etchings. Stacey Ross Bartlett describes it perfectly in his poem "November Evenings".

"The eve is an etching of intricate tree tops
Of bird nests in branches, a black and white pure
Of shadows and highlights with stars that are quiet,
And pane-sheltered fires. The eve is an etching
Of November heavens, Of house-tops and chimneys
And silent smoke lyres."

At day's end the sky was luminous—pale primrose and orange near the horizon, and lilac over head with reflections in the pond. But the land was dark with the coming night and the trees stood out against the colors, black as charcoal. A beautiful ending.

The bottles will be picked up on Saturday for the Woodstock Ways and Means committee.

On Thursday Ann Holt took her mother, Fay, to Boston to see her eye specialist. While there they called on Gladys Homans who used to live here in town.

We called on Carl and Lettie Brooks on Sunday afternoon in West Paris.

On Friday Ann Holt entertained Ruth Hastings, Rena Bacon, Fay Holt and me for dinner at her home in Bethel. Ruth was the special guest as it was her birthday.

Glenn and Rachel Hayes and boys were at the Hayes Homestead Friday and Saturday and did some hunting. They returned to Gray on Sunday. Other visitors on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Hayes and children of West Paris and Ardell Hayes of Auburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Leeper of Rhode Island were at their cottage here over the long week end. Frank and Dorothy Curtis visited them for the evening on Sunday. Dorothy Curtis was in Lewiston on Friday to do some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Curtis had as visitors this week Walter Curtis and three boys from Chesterville; Mildred Bowman from Hebron.

Round Mountain Grange met Monday, Nov. 6, 1978 at Hunt's Corner Grange Hall. Members voted to pay outstanding bills and to turn over the Street Light Contract to the Albany Congregational Church. Brother Hugh Stearns will notify CMP about the billing change. It was reported that Sister Velma Cummings of West Paris is waiting for a second eye operation. Master Leah Deegan will take her a fruit basket.

Election of officers followed with visitors Thelma Merrill and Helen Sellonen of Paris Grange as ballot clerks: Master, Leah Deegan; Overseer, Paul Buswell; Lecturer, Fred Judkins; Steward, Mathew Faulkner; Assistant Steward, Velma Cummings; L. A. Steward, Brenda Buswell; Chaplain, and three boys from Chesterville; Mildred Bowman from Hebron.

North Paris

— Mrs. Collis Morgan, Corres. —

November is riding her broomstick down dusky skies but as yet her breath which is usually harsh has been gentle. What a lovely two weeks we have had!

Until the hunting season is over, I shall not walk the woodland trails. So when I go out I follow the main highway. Even here there are things to notice. The coarse blades of grass bend low over pools and mossy hummocks.

I have discovered two robins mud-caked nests near home, which I tried to find during the summer. Everywhere along the way, there are old friends among the trees, special plants which I visit at different seasons.

There is one section of the road that I think of in winter as the refrigerator. Here the wind blows cold. Big clouds white and billowy can quickly turn dark and threatening and speed before its chill-blast trailing their skirts over the far off mountain tops. I have seen a cloud move up and hide the sun, then the very same hills which had seemed so kind, were suddenly lonely and formidable, and the wind suddenly chill. Here it's coolest in summer, too.

On the rocks and ridges above the road there were masses of Christmas ferns. They retain their fronds all during winter, and are glossy green.

Beyond, a cloud, white and fluffy as eiderdown, sailed across the sky, trailing a gray shadow across the ridges.

A chipmunk, not yet gone to his winter home, scurried over the leaf carpet of the woodland floor. It's a beautiful country even in its bareness. The valley displayed its little rounded hills, green and friendly. The tall stately trees, were graceful in their tracery of bare boughs. Jagged rocks stuck out through the thin skin of the earth.

November has a peculiar quality of light especially late afternoon. Somehow the hills across the valley seem close and distinct. Bare trees stand against sky like detailed etchings. Stacey Ross Bartlett describes it perfectly in his poem "November Evenings".

"The eve is an etching of intricate tree tops
Of bird nests in branches, a black and white pure
Of shadows and highlights with stars that are quiet,
And pane-sheltered fires. The eve is an etching
Of November heavens, Of house-tops and chimneys
And silent smoke lyres."

At day's end the sky was luminous—pale primrose and orange near the horizon, and lilac over head with reflections in the pond. But the land was dark with the coming night and the trees stood out against the colors, black as charcoal. A beautiful ending.

The bottles will be picked up on Saturday for the Woodstock Ways and Means committee.

JACKSON-SILVER UNIT #68

The Armistice Day Celebration in Locke Mills was a success, thanks to all those who participated.

Commander Herman Cummings Jr., as the parade marshal, was accompanied by Unit Chaplain Fannie Cummings, carrying the wreath made by Cathryn Lovejoy, that was placed at the Honor Roll, following an appropriate prayer by Chaplain Alanson Cummings of the Post.

Jerry Heffley was in charge of the Telstar High School Marching Band, and they played the Star Spangled Banner at the Honor Roll and Taps, that followed the firing of the volley.

Both Post and Unit colors of Jackson Silver were carried near the head of the procession.

Earl Merrill of Bryant Pond gladly donated his Model A Ford and did the driving for the W. W. I. veterans, that included Murat Kermis, who served also in the 1916 Mexican Expedition, George Powers, an Army veteran and Alanson Cummings, who represented the Navy. Sorry, some of the men couldn't make it. Mary Bishop, President of the W. W. I. Barrens role, also.

Thanks go to the DUV of Bryant Pond for entering a float. They are always faithful.

It was a nice day and there was a good crowd at the dinner, game party and dance.

It is hoped a goodly sum was realized for all the effort that went into the full day of activities with Warren Smith in charge.

Members helping to serve the noon meal were, the Smiths, Dunhams, Sargents, the H. Cummings, Cathryn Lovejoy and Vera Cross.

Note—Chester Worthington, who has been with us several years, was missing as he is a patient at the VA Hospital. A card was signed for him by all the members present. We wish him a speedy recovery.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS OFFER
THANKSGIVING SERVICE

Members of First Church of Christ Scientist, Berlin, N. H., have scheduled their annual Thanksgiving service for Thursday, Nov. 23 at 11 a. m. The service, open to the public, will be held in the church edifice at the corner of Main and Tenth streets.

The hour-long meeting includes Scriptural readings and hymns of thanksgiving, as well as excerpts on the topic of gratitude from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy.

The readings this year include passages from Psalms: "I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving.... He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds."

And from Science and Health:
"Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech."

Following the readings, time has been set aside for Christian Scientists to share their gratitude for God's goodness and love.

Stuart and Ann Hull, who are serving a term as the congregation's Readers, will conduct the service which also includes President Jimmy Carter's Thanksgiving Proclamation. David Thompson will play an organ solo, Prayer of Thanksgiving.

Care will be provided for young children and no collection will be taken.

Letters to the Editor

Western Avenue
South Paris
Nov. 10, 1978

To the Editor:

I would like to thank all the voters who supported me in my campaign for election to the District 5 State Senate seat. As your senator in Augusta, I promise to represent, to the best of my ability all the people in the district. The results of my pre-election survey have shown me what some of your concerns are and I will express those concerns on the State level.

In order for me to better communicate with you, a number of citizens have agreed to act as Sutton representatives in every major town in the district. If you are unable to contact me directly, please get in touch with one of my representatives: Bill Conroy, Gilead; Al Barth, Bethel; Joyce
Hathaway, Greenwood; or Evelyn Bean, Woodstock. They will see that your ideas get to me for prompt action.

Remember, representative government can only be as effective as individuals are willing to make it. Please support all your local state, and federal representatives and let them know how you feel on all the issues.

Thanks again for your support.
Sincerely,
Roland L. Sutton
Senator, District 5

TOWN MANAGER'S COMMENTS

or where income other than taxes fell short of estimates.

The Board again reviewed the State Department of Transportation's preliminary decision regarding railroad crossing improvements in West Bethel. This decision will include: (1) the upgrade of the Ferry Grade Crossing with gates and signals, (2) the closing of the cemetery crossing, and (3) the retaining of the Smith Crossing with signals. As the town originally requested that the Smith Crossing be discontinued, we were extremely disappointed that in keeping the crossing open, the state did not include improvements to the crossing and improvements to the road's intersection with U. S.
Route #2. The manager indicated that the Canadian National Railroad was not pleased with the decision regarding the Smith Crossing, however, they did not plan to appeal the State's decision. After discussion, the Board directed the manager to notify the State Department of Transportation that the Town would abide by the State's decisions but that we expect the State's assistance in upgrading the Smith Crossing and the approach to Rt. 2 from the Smith Crossing.
Copies of this letter are to be sent to our local state representative and senator together with a history of the program.

The manager reported that he and Selectman Arlan Jordrey visited and inspected the Town Farm on Saturday, Nov. 11, and found the structure to be in poor condition. After discussion the Board reaffirmed its present priority of locating other living arrangements for the present tenant.

The Board accepted with regret the resignation of Summer Burgess
as a Trustee of the Water District effective Dec. 31, 1978, and directed that a letter of appreciation be sent to Mr. Burgess. Any individual interested in serving as a Trustee should contact the Town Office. Such appointment would be for the remaining two years of a three year term which expires
in December of 1980.

The Board of Selectmen held a special meeting last Thursday evening, Nov. 27, to discuss Dubois & King's preliminary findings regarding improvement needs of our sewer system and treatment plant.
Various options were discussed and it was decided that the manager and Selectmen should visit two small plants in Vermont which have treatment processes similar to what Dubois & King recommending for Bethel. The manager was directed to arrange for this visit during the week after Thanksgiving.

In upcoming meetings, the Selectmen will meet Monday, Nov.
20, to discuss future utilities needs for municipal departments and offices, the Assessors will meet Monday evening, Nov. 27,
and the Selectmen will meet Monday, Dec. 4. As part of their meeting on Dec. 4, the Board will visit
the West Bethel Children's Center.

Mrs. Arline Bernier, Corres.—The Arons had their pig butchered by Alan Peart and company of Erol. They have taken the meat to Locke Mills to be cut, cured and wrapped.

Larry Wade was the victim of vandalism last week. Much of the loss was recorders and sound systems which he uses in his work for and with the children. The sheriff's department looked it over. It would be nice if the property is found and returned.

Yours truly went to Lewiston last week. The car was reluctant to start but it was outvoted. For spite it blew a tire in Newry on the return trip and the recently repaired spare tire was also flat. If country life is dull, my system would never stand excitement.

Isn't It The Truth?
It's an odd thing, yet very true. That folks you don't like, seldom like you.

But just the same, I always know if I am sour, friends are few. If I am friendly, folks are lot. Sometimes I get up in the morn'g. Wishing I'd never been born.

I make of cross remarks a few. And then my family wishes, too. That I'd gone some other place instead of showing them my face. However, just let me change my tune.

And sing, and smile, and then the people all around me sing. So you can see it was catching all the while.

Yes, it's a queer thing, but quite true. Folks that you like, Most always like you.
